13 Former Enforcement Officers Charged for Alleged Offences Involving Duty-unpaid Cigarettes and e-Vaporiser Products

On 30 January 2026, 13 Certis officers who were doing enforcement work at the material time of the offences, were charged in Court with various alleged offences:

- a) Muhammad Fitri Bin Jaffar (“Fitri”) (38-year-old male Singaporean);
- b) Muhammad Syafiq Bin Tahar (“Syafiq”) (39-year-old male Singaporean);
- c) Mohamad Aidil Bin Abu Bakar (“Aidil”) (47-year-old male Singaporean);
- d) Muhamad Hazim Bin Mohamed Jalil (“Hazim”) (33-year-old male Singaporean);
- e) Sufian Bin Mohamed (“Sufian”) (45-year-old male Singaporean);
- f) Muhammad Faddley Bin Abdul Wahid (“Faddley”) (38-year-old male Singaporean);
- g) Chan Wei Ying, Olivia (“Chan”) (陈薇嫻, 39-year-old female Singaporean);
- h) Mohamed Fiaros Bin Mohamed Zakaria (“Fiaros”) (43-year-old male Singaporean);
- i) Muhammad Haziq Bin Khamzah (“Haziq”) (31-year-old male Singaporean);
- j) Muhammad Khairul Izzul Shah Bin Abdul Karim (“Khairul”) (38-year-old male Singaporean);
- k) Nurazmy Bin Yusoff (“Nurazmy”) (33-year-old male Singaporean);
- l) Reggie Choo Beng Kwang (“Choo”) (朱民光, 32-year-old male Singaporean); and
- m) Tan Wee Keong (“Tan”) (陈维强, 38-year-old male Singaporean).

Alleged Criminal Breach of Trust Offences

2 Sometime between 2019 and 2022, on separate occasions, Fitri, Syafiq, Aidil, Hazim, Faddley, Chan, Fiaros and Haziq allegedly misappropriated properties that were entrusted to them in their capacity as Enforcement Officers. These properties comprised cartons and loose packets of duty-unpaid cigarettes, e-vaporisers, multiple cartons of e-vaporiser pods as well as other prohibited tobacco products valued at about S$18,327 in total. In addition, Fitri, Syafiq, Aidil, Hazim and Haziq allegedly conspired with each other on separate occasions to misappropriate these properties.

Alleged Receiving Stolen Property Offences

3 Sometime between 2021 and 2022, on separate occasions, Fitri, Syafiq, Aidil, Hazim, Sufian, Faddley, Fiaros, Haziq, Khairul and Nurazmy allegedly received stolen properties from one another and other individuals. These stolen properties comprised sticks, loose packets and cartons of duty-unpaid cigarettes and e-vaporiser pods valued at about S$1,438 in total.

Alleged Obstruction of Justice Offences

4 Sometime in 2022, on separate occasions, Faddley, Fiaros, Choo and Tan allegedly obstructed the course of justice in relation to the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau's (CPIB) investigation:

- i) Faddley allegedly disposed of e-vaporisers, e-vaporiser pods and duty-unpaid cigarettes into the rubbish chute of a Housing and Development Board (HDB) unit before opening the door to CPIB officers;
- ii) Fiaros allegedly deleted a note in his phone containing records of 45 e-vaporiser pods that he had misappropriated during his course of work, after learning from Sufian that he was with CPIB officers;
- iii) Tan allegedly revealed information about CPIB's investigation to Choo who subsequently disposed of at least one e-vaporiser and three packs of e-vaporiser pods that he possessed after Tan advised him to do so; and

- iv) Choo allegedly deleted his WhatsApp conversation with Tan in relation to CPIB's investigation.

Alleged Offences Under Tobacco (Control of Advertisements and Sale) Act

5 Sometime in 2022, Faddley, Syafiq, Hazim and Aidil were found to be in possession of e-vaporisers and related components when they were caught by CPIB. These items, used for their personal consumption, were allegedly part of case seizures related to their course of work.

Alleged Offences Under Customs Act

6 Fitri, Syafiq, Aidil and Faddley, in the course of their duties, were required to conduct disposal of duty-unpaid cigarettes and e-vaporisers from the HSA disposal bins located at various checkpoints. They had allegedly taken the cigarettes, which did not comply with the standardised packaging<sup>1</sup> requirement, intended for disposal and retained them for personal consumption. The cigarettes were found in their respective residences.
